

I would like the current rules regarding use of cell phones on airplanes to remain the same - that is no use of cell phones while planes are taking off and airborne. I feel that if cell phones are allowed to be used during flights, it will create an uncomfortable (and potentially unsafe) atmosphere inside the plane, especially during night flights.